MURDERER IS MANY TIME SLAYER

Negro Sentenced to Death at San Quentin in Final Confession Admits New Crimes
—Yankee Boat Wins—
Female Found Dead in Trunk Murder Mystery.

SANTA ANA, July 23.—Mose Gibson, negro "killer," in his confession to Sheriff Jackson at San Quentin, added the following to his list of murders.

A storekeeper at Wagner, La., in 1910.

A night watchman at a sugar factory in Gramercy, La., in 1910.

A woman at Orange Junction, Fla., in 1910.

The murders admitted cover a period of twelve years. Gibson made the confession to "clear his soul," so he could "go the grave," he said.

LOS ANGELES, July 23.—Mose Gibson, the negro sentenced Wednesday at Santa Ana to hang at San Quentin, September 24, for the murder of Roy Trapp, rancher at Fullerton, Cal., has confessed ten murders and so many burglaries he could not enumerate them, according to a telephone message received here today by Sheriff John C. Glina of Los Angeles County from Sheriff C. E. Jackson of Orange county, at Santa Ana, immediately upon the latter's return from taking Gibson to the penitentiary.

The murders to which Jackson said Gibson confessed were:

Roy Trapp, rancher, Fullerton, Cal., July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Earheart, Phoenix, Ariz., last month.

J. R. Revis, white restaurant keeper of Baton Rouge Junction, La., twelve years ago.

Six of which he gave no details.

Immediately after the murder of Trapp, according to Gibson's confession here, where he was kept in the county jail for a few days because of reported high feeling against him in Orange county, he criminally assaulted Mrs. Trapp. Her recovery still is doubtful. Gibson said he entered the Trapp home with the original intention of committing burglary.

The killing of Mr. and Mrs. Earheart, Sheriff Jackson said Gibson confessed, followed his escape from the jail at Phoenix, where he was serving a thirty days' sentence for bootlegging. He was quoted as confessing he killed the couple to obtain money.

The slaying of Revis at Baton Rouge Junction, La., was said to have been inspired by desire for the restaurant keeper's money, as Gibson was said to have obtained about $300 by robbing his alleged victim. A reward of $1000 was

JAP EMPEROR IS DEAD, SAYS CONSUL

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 23.— That the emperor of Japan has been dead several weeks, but that the fact is not being published because of suppression by military authorities, is a current report at Kobe, according to H. G. White, Peruvian consul here, who has just returned from a trip to the Orient.

Just how much credence can be placed in the report of the death of the Emperor is not certain now. If the report of his death is true, it is believed that the event will be one fraught with the greatest and gravest of international moment.
Whether the death of the emperor has occurred or not has not been verified here, but if the report is correct then it might mean a new political status for Japan.

Rotarians Hear Rev. Paul Little

Rev. Paul Little, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church, was the speaker of the day at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club yesterday. "The Firm I Represent" was the pastor's topic, and he handled it for thirty minutes in such a way that he kept the rapt attention of his auditors. The Rev.
Little interspersed many of his remarks with witty anecdotes that were well received by the audience.
George N. Booker was chairman of the day, and he handled the place with great credit.

Engineer Edward Taylor, of the East Bay Water Company, gave a ten-minute talk on the lights on the San Pablo Valley reservoir. John Hagood, head of a school in Honolulu, talked on conditions in the Islands.

HUBBY GONE, FOUL PLAY FEARED

Oakland Woman Requests Police to Aid Her in Search for Spouse, Whom She Fears Is Victim of Foul Play—San Francisco Judges May Face Disbarment Proceedings.

OAKLAND, July 23.—Appealing to the police to aid her in her search for her missing husband, Mrs. Mona Hamilton this morning told the police authorities her fears concerning the fate of William H.
Hamilton, who disappeared from the family home, 1036 Pearmain street, last Monday.

Mrs. Hamilton told the police that her fears for her husband were accentuated by the fact that for several weeks he had been the victim of a spell of pronounced mel-ancholia.

The missing man left a note to left a note to his wife which she found pinned to her pillow last Monday morning. The note was brief and said that he was going away and that it would be useless to look for him.

Mrs. Hamilton gave the police a comprehensive description of her husband. He is 34 years old, and when last seen wore a gray suit with light blue stripes.

JUDGES MAY BE DISBARRED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—Police Judges John J. Sullivan and Morris Oppenheim are to face disbarment proceedings, to be instituted by the San Francisco Bar Association, it became known today.

Long ago, before it became evident that the grand jury's investigations would end only in an expose of conditions without any court convictions, the Bar Association announced that when the official prosecutors finished with erring public officials the association would take action.

The association today is only awaiting the return from a vacation of its president, Judge Jeremiah F.
Sullivan, to take action against the two police court judges.

The association took the stand, before Attorney General U. S. Webb dismissed the bribery complaint against Judge Sullivan, instead of trying to secure a conviction, on the assumption that prosecution would be unsuccessful, that the graft cases should be prosecuted with vigor.

The action of the attorney general in refusing to prosecute Sullivan has not convinced the Bar Association that Sullivan should not be prosecuted or that nothing would be accomplished by prosecuting him.

BERKELEY TO HAVE EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

OAKLAND, July 23.—Acting ty, will represent Berkeley, Albany visors Monday morning when he will

BUTCHERS ARE FIRM IN THEIR STAND

OAKLAND, July 23.—The butchers' strike was still deadlocked tonight. Both sides are claiming victory. Each is determined in its determination to stand pat.

According to Charles Corbett, business representative of Local Union No. 120, they have the backing of all organized labor in Alameda county and of all the butchers throughout California.

A check for $500 was received yesterday from another local, according to Corbett. By Monday the men will be drawing full pay whether they are working or not, according to Corbett. The announcement that $7000 had been raised by the master butchers to fight the strike, he said, made the men feel that the money might just as well have been used to raise the wages of the men.

According to Corbett, 78 shops have now signed the demand. Corbett also made the announcement that a co-operative shop has been started and that several others will soon be opened by the union. By Monday, he said, these shops would be able to take care of the public.
They are operated by the most competent men in the union.

The agreement of the shops to the new scale would not make necessary a raise in the price of meat to the public, according to Corbett.

petition the supervisors to establish a branch county hospital in Berkeley.

Telling of the need of an emergency hospital in this district, Commissioner Heywood said today that residents of the northern end of the county are entitled to as much consideration in a case like this as Berkeley itself is five miles away from the nearest emergency hospital.

Heywood, who has been appointed to represent Berkeley by Mayor Louis Bartlett, now on his vacation, is willing that the city share the expense of maintaining the hospital with the county.

1500 SAILORS WILL VISIT RICHMOND

Battleship Squadron No. 2 of the Atlantic Fleet Will Arrive in Richmond on Tour of Inspection August 4—Chamber of Commerce Committee Will Pilot 250 Automobiles for Sailor Lads.

Last night the Chamber of Commerce appointed a committee to arrange a proper welcome to Richmond of the 1500 midshipmen of the battleship squadron of the Atlantic fleet, which will arrive in Richmond on the afternoon of August 4, for the purpose of going through the Standard Oil Refinery here. The sailors will come from Berkeley to Richmond in 250 autos, and the local committee will endeavor to divert this army of autos to other points of interest in and around Richmond when the inspection of the refinery has been made.
The following dispatch from Berkeley contains some of the details, a part of which have already been mentioned in the News:

BERKELEY, July 23.—Battleship Squadron No. 2 of the Atlantic Fleet, with 1500 midshipmen aboard, will arrive in San Francisco Bay on July 29. They will stay here until August 6, and the entire day on August 4 has been turned over to the Eastbay cities to entertain them.

The men are of the three upper classes at Annapolis and are on what is known as the instruction cruise.

On Monday, August 2, the men will visit the Eastbay shipyards and Neptune Beach in Alameda, the first of these two being a part of their instruction study. On August 4 the men will visit the Standard Oil refinery in Richmond as a part of the class instruction, and from there will be taken to the Claremont Country Club in Oakland for luncheon.

Berkeley's part will be comprised in supplying 250 automobiles to transport the navy men from the refinery in Richmond to the Claremont Country Club.

An appeal for volunteer automobiles was issued today. Persons willing to offer machines are requested to communicate with Wells Drury, secretary of the Berkeley chamber of commerce, or the mayor's office in the city hall.

Tavolara Funeral for Next Tuesday

The funeral of Fortunato Tavolara, aged Point Richmond shoemaker, who died at his shop last Wednesday night, will be held at 9 o'clock next Tuesday morning from the family residence at 670 Eighteenth street. The funeral procession will go to St. Mark's Catholic Church, where mass will be held. Interment will be in St.
Mary's cemetery, Oakland.

dur are spending a vacation at

HUMOROUS JOTS

"That man started in life on fifty dollars he borrowed."
"And made a fortune, eh?"
"No; it ruined him. He found getting that so easy that he's ever since."

AN ULTIMOR MOTIVE

"I wish I had been able to go into the army," said Mr.
Cumrox.
"A noble ambition."
"Not exactly. It's mostly selfish. If I were a soldier maybe mother and the girls would collect funds to buy tobacco for me instead of ordering me out of the house every time I light a cigar."

SIX MONTHS IS TERM FOR MEX.

Pleading guilty to a charge of burglary, Sam Bacaro, a Mexican, aged 18, was yesterday sentenced in the Superior Court to serve 180 days after he had admitted an attempted robbery at the house of O. B. Dibble of Clinton Avenue.

Some time back, it will be recalled, Dibble was awakened by strange noises in his house, and he jumped from bed to be confronted by a young, dark man, who told him that if he were not quiet that he would come to grief.
Dibble showed unusual self-possession and courage, and instead of obeying the intruder he grasped a gun, gave pursuit and captured the Mexican, leading him to jail.

Yesterday in the Superior Court, Bacaro admitted his guilt and was sentenced accordingly.

Richmond Women In Narrow Escape

Mrs. Rose Embree and Mrs. Mae Prario escaped serious injury and possible death last Monday when Mrs. Embree's car plunged over a 20-foot embankment on the way to Monte Rio. It was learned here yesterday. Had the car not been halted in its flight by a tree, serious injury to the occupants would have been almost certain. It was almost a miracle that the ladies escaped serious injury. The car was badly wrecked. Mrs. Embree's car is said to be the eighth car that has gone over the grade at this point.

CAMP GROUND RICHMOND BOOST

Chamber of Commerce Meeting Develops Fact That New Camp Ground Will Be Big Asset for Greater Richmond—Three Bureaus To Be Established—Chamber
Is Now Practically Out of Debt.

At the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night many matters of importance were called to the immediate attention of Richmond boosters. The recent acquisition of a free public camp ground for automobile tourists has so far proven of benefit in that it is the only camp ground in the Bay section.

Secretary Wallace stated that he had received a communication from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce showing southern California maintained thirty-five public camps for tourists, while northern and central California had but eighteen, the larger number being in the extreme northern section of the state, and utilized by tourists from Portland and Seattle.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has an arrangement by which all tourists apply to the various commerce secretaries for the use of the free camp ground, and they are accorded every courtesy available to gain favorable impression of the communities as well as registering their home states.

Wallace pointed out that this source of tourist travel had proven so highly valuable to the southern cities that the automobile tourists by the thousands are pouring into southern California and leaving vast sums of money wherever they visit.

It was decided at the meeting to establish three distinct bureaus in the Richmond Chamber. An automobile bureau to include all car dealers and garage men of Richmond and environs will be maintained with C. C. Kratzer at its head. A realty board will also be installed. The Merchants Association is now represented actively in the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce.

The secretary was instructed to call for a special meeting of the entire membership, to be held next Friday evening, at which time some needed changes and amendments to the constitution and by-laws will be taken up.

of J. F. Galvin, C. C. Kratzer and

New Industries

With one of the largest and most important industrial enterprises now coming to Richmond with an immense branch factory, another smaller, but also important, about to do likewise, and the harbor work to be undoubtedly recommended, the people of Richmond and all other people have every reason to believe that Richmond real estate will greatly enhance in value from now on. Many anticipate that Richmond will double in size and population within the next five years.

HARDING AGAINST LEAGUE

Senator Harding, in his letter of acceptance of the Presidential nomination by the Republican party, bitterly arraigns the League of Nations and takes practically the same stand about it that Hiram Johnson and the Republican Senate minority took in the filibustering debate in which they frittered away the whole of last session.

We are sorry to see Harding take this stand. It ought not to be a partisan question at all, but he and his minority cohorts have made it so.

Governor Cox, the Democratic nominee, on the other hand is for the League of Nations, along practically the same lines as President Wilson is, and so the matter is now up to the people for decision at the polls at the November election.

We may be wrong in the conclusions we have drawn about the action of this handful of senators, and hope we are, but will have to be shown. We do not believe they are actuated by the reasons they give; at least, not all of them. We believe they are simply doing what their masters, the big trusts, demand that they do.

We believe that the steel trust, the oil trust, the powder trust, the shipbuilding trust, the munitions trusts and many kindred combinations are in favor of all the war that can possibly be kicked up in the world, at all times and under all circumstances, because that makes multi-millionaires out of them. And we further believe that these big trusts own most of that minority senatorial bunch body and soul, and dictate their every political action, and pay them millions of dollars for their official services, and to get them re-elected to office.

The devilish ingenuity and traitorous rascality of some of these men is almost beyond human belief. They will do anything for wealth and power, and the big combinations of capital give them that wealth and power.

Senator Harding may be an exception, but he is trailing with as politically corrupt a gang as ever brought the blush of shame to the cheek of honesty. Harding was picked out by the trusts. He is acceptable to Wall Street as a nominee. The money of the capitalists is behind him; and he is now doing just what they want him to do—whether it be from conviction or because of the environments surrounding him like a hard-wire fence.

THINKOGRAPHS

A girl who insists on "living her own life" should have her brake bands looked after.

The only way the church people can cure man of going fishing on Sundays is to find some way to make the fish quit biting on those days.

This world is getting better all the time, and so is man, notwithstanding wars and all that sort of thing, and anybody who will study it deep enough will find that this is true.

As the years and the centuries roll by, which are but ripples on the surface of the ocean of Time, human selfishness will become more and more eradicated, and then many of the things which are wrong now will become extinct.

They are uncovering swindlers in Washington who have been systematically cheating the government on war contracts. Here is the plain English of it: A German spy, assassin, incendiary or plotter is a gentleman and a scholar compared with the native scoundrel who pursues the vocation of war swindling. Such a crime ought to be defined as treason and those who commit it ought to be hanged.

Any person who deals with the public gets very tired of life now and then.

We have always found it easy to get into debt, but, Lord, how hard it is to get out!

Still, the wets who are predicting that prohibition will never be enforced are afraid that it will be.

Every man has his worthless days, but if he does not fight them, every day will become his worthless day.

A thief believes everybody else is dishonest, and if profiteering is dishonest, which it is, there is some logic in his belief.

The patent medicine ads. say women suffer in silence, but none of the women we have ever known were very strong on that silence stuff.

Mutton tallow is better than vaseline for anything either is used for, but we all buy the latter because it is put up in cute little bottles and costs ten times as much.

When Senator Owen says there is too much currency inflation in the world, he is striking at the condition that is enabling fifteen cents worth of bacon to elude a consumer six bits.

Many of us would like to be rich on account of the great good we could accomplish, but when we get rich we forget that part of it and put in the rest of our days trying to get still richer.

"Every State legislature reflects accurately the intelligence of the people it represents," declares a Western governor. Probably so. That is what makes the outlook so discouraging at times.

When young and foolish we thought hell was likely a good place to have fun in, so broke in there several times to look around. We found it very much over-estimated, and so came away.

If you will mark down in a book everything you spend for six months and then go over it, you will find that a whole lot of it was foolish and unnecessary. Try it and see. It is worth while.

There is a lot of prosperity now everywhere in America, but you have got to get up early and hustle like blazes to get your share. Don't forget that. Nobody is passing it around on a silver platter.

Some people put strong perfumery on themselves to kill their smell, and the perfumery is worse, if anything, than their natural smell. What most of such people need more than anything else, is an occasional bath.

The Filipino Mission declares the story that Japanese are flocking to the Philippines is untrue. The type of Japanophobia prevalent in the United States can be checked only by shooting the victim full of sleeping sickness germs.

When we die and get to be a ghost we do not propose to go around haunting anybody, or causing any outla boards to dance the shimmy dance, and we do not believe any other self-respecting shades are up to any such fool tricks, either.

The main reason thousands of people are in poorhouses and asylums of like nature is because they fooled away their money and possessions when they had a chance to lay by something for old age. And thousands of us are following that example.

When we were a little boy, many years ago, people were reaching with all their might and main for the dollar, and they are still doing the same thing. In those days, though, a dollar would buy a whole lot, and now it buys very little, so everybody has to have more of them.

The new taxpayers' party which Senator Kenyon predicts will come into being soon if extravagance in government is not stopped, may not amount to much even should all the taxpayers join. It seems now that there are more taxpayers than taxpayers, and the former are constantly increasing.

Deer Season to Open Aug. 1st.

A week from Sunday the deer season is to open in California, and nimrods of Richmond and Contra said to have been offered for Revis' murderer.

Revis was struck on the head with a coupling pin, it is said, after which his head was nearly severed from his body with a butcher knife. Trapp was killed with blows on the head with a miner's pick, and Mrs. Trapp was struck on the head with a hammer.

The details of the Earheart slaying were not made public.

Sheriff Jackson said Gibson admitted he had committed "thousands of robberies and burglaries, obtaining sums ranging from a few cents to $100."

RESOLUTE WINS THE FOURTH RACE

SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 23.—Resolute won the fourth race for the America cup today, making it a tie at two victories each. The deciding contest will be on Saturday—fifteen miles out and back.

Except for a few minutes, close to the finish, the Yankee boat always led. Even when headed it was not in danger, its time allowance being ample.

Coming around the second stage at 2:25:49, the defender was leading by 1 minute 27 seconds, or, with the 23 seconds deducted from the starting times, by 1 minute 4 seconds. As the Shamrock was sailing today under her old measurements, putting the time allowance back to 8 minutes 40 seconds, the big green boat had to gain 7 minutes 44 seconds on the last leg to finish on even terms.

Resolute had made the first turn possessed of a comparatively easy lead, going around at 1:37:27, with the challenger following at 1:56:58 or 2 minutes and 31 seconds later. This was a net gain of 2 minutes and 8 seconds, as Resolute went over the starting line 23 seconds in advance of the rival boat.

There was a good and comparatively close start to the race, which was delayed by fog and light breeze one hour beyond that scheduled, the starting signal being at noon, Eastern standard time (9 a.m. San Francisco time), instead of 11 a.m. o'clock.

Thick weather, with rolling banks of fog off shore prevailed, and there was a five-knot wind from the south. The race today is over a triangular course. The yachts headed south-southwest on the first leg of the triangle, which was a beat to windward. The second leg is a reach east by north, and the third another reach to the finish.

Today's course is of the triangular variety, the kind in which Shamrock gained her victory on Tuesday last. On that occasion, which consisted of two reaching legs and one in a fair wind, the British boat found a race that suited it exactly and proved that reaching is its strong suit. It is the rule, whenever possible, to make this course a beat to windward on one leg and two reaches.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

NEW YORK, July 23.—Thrust into a small steamer trunk, beneath a pile of clothing, the nude body of a young woman, who is believed to have been murdered in Detroit, Mich., and shipped to this city, was found today by employees of the American Railway Express Company.

The trunk arrived from Detroit on June 17. The shipper gave the name of A. A. Tietum of 105 Harper street, Detroit, and the gruesome consignment was addressed to "James Douglas, New York City."

The victim's face had turned dark, giving rise to one theory that she may have been put in the trunk while still alive. No wounds were found on the body.

James Demarest, delivery foreman at the American Railway Express warehouse at 245 East Forty-fourth street, where the unclaimed trunk was lying, reported the discovery to the police.

For a number of days the trunk rested amidst a mass of unclaimed baggage on the third floor of the warehouse. Recently the clerks began to complain of the odor and the trunk was removed to the basement.

Praetorians Will Hold Fancy Dance

The Praetorians will entertain the dancing public of Richmond at a masquerade ball to be given next Thursday evening at W. O. W. Hall. Plans are being made for an elaborate affair and prizes will be given for the most original costumes. Music for the event is to be furnished by Shaw's orchestra.

OHIO IS SURE TO NAME CHIEF

LINCOLN, Neb., July 23.—No matter what transpires, an Ohioan will without question of doubt be the next President of the United States, for the third Ohioan to receive a presidential nomination was today elected as the standard bearer of the Prohibition party. He is Aaron S. Watkins of Germantown, Ohio. He was made the standard bearer of the party after it was learned that William J. Bryan had declined the honor.

Watkins is a professor of literature in a Germantown military academy. He was professor in a College for several years, and was vice-presidential candidate on the prohibition ticket in 1908 and 1912.

He was born on a farm in Ohio, and is 63 years of age. He preached seventeen years in the Methodist Church before he started to teach. With Watkins in the field, it is now a certainty that no matter what happens an Ohioan will be the next President.

ATHLETIC GOES ON FOR TONIGHT

The future of the boxing and wrestling game of the American Athletic Club is at stake tonight when that institution stages its show at Moose Hall. The show is to start promptly at 7:30, and a fair array of talent has been secured by the new promoters.

Heading the boxing card will be Solly Salvatore of Richmond and Vallejo and Eddie Fay of Petaluma. Bill Fensig, another Richmond product, is down to clash with Jimmy Poole of Vallejo.

Red Shannon of Richmond, a hard hitter and scientific young boxer, is hooked up to battle with Frankie Martin.

At Hall, pride of Richmond, and one of the best wrestlers in the country at his weight, is to hook up with Chris Spiro of San Francisco, who is looked upon as a very formidable grappler.

Pat Howard, a local product of the grappling game, is to take on Bill Kiley of Los Angeles, who is looked upon as a comer in the southern metropolises.

Should tonight's show prove a success, it is the plan of the new athletic club to stage bouts of a high class at regular intervals.

LOCAL NATIVE SONS TO HELP BUY PICTURE

Richmond Parlor of Native Sons have taken up the matter of the famous "California picture," "Crossing the Plains," from the brush of Andrew P. Hill, noted artist. The subject of the painting deals with the trials of the early pioneers who crossed the plains into California. Hill's father was a member of the caravan, and the story of the trials and hardships of this pioneer caravan came down to Hill, and the painting is a living pictorialization of the artist's father's entry into California.

The Grand Parlor of the Native Sons have decided to purchase, through the parlors of the order, the painting, which is valued at $15,000 and present it to the State of California, to be hung in the State Capitol at Sacramento. The picture is now on exhibition in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco.

"Cheater" Shows at T. & D. Today

To obtain a stone tower and a house of English architecture as a setting for "The Cheater," May Allison and members of her company were obliged to journey from the Metro studios in Hollywood, California, all the way to Santa Barbara.

Miss Allison, as the daughter of a rogue of a conjurer, professes to work miracles after long fasts in "The Cheater," showing today at the Richmond Theatre, which was adapted by Lois Zellner from "Judah," the notable stage drama by Henry Arthur Jones. Preparing to heal the crippled daughter of a nobleman, the pseudo healer is shut up in the tower to fast. Her father smuggles food to her tower room until the nobleman's friends place such a close watch upon the place that the girl nearly perishes of starvation.

The tower and home used for the Metro picture are situated on the Black estate near Santa Barbara.

Miss Allison, Henry Otto, her director; King Baggett, her leading man; Frank Currier, Harry Van Meter, William Esmond, cameraman; E. J. Zerr, assistant director, and four other members of the company made the trip from Hollywood to Santa Barbara by motor.

On the same bill is a Goldwyn comedy, "Secret News Reel and Ford Weekly."

No, we do not hear anything about the construction of that new theater building, but reckon that if any of us live long enough we'll see it build. If they don't get it covered over before the rainy season it may compete with the water company.

Any Eastern chap who shows up around Richmond with white shoes, tennis pants and a straw hat soon discovers that he has another thing coming. He gets goose pimples as big as eggs the first night out. A fellow can't soak his overcoat here at all, for if he is out nights he needs it the year round.

The putting on of 750 more men by the Foundation Company again for the completion of the great enlargement of the Standard Oil plant has made quite a difference in working circles. Everybody is busy who wants to work, at good pay, and in another month this will be noticed in all business circles.

CAR HOLD UP SCHEME OF ROBBERS

If Ernest Loeffler, Roy Athey, William Emigh and Ronald Meyer had not been picked up in Oakland just at the time that they were by the police, the indications are, according to a confession of one of them, that Richmond would have been the scene of a number of street car hold-ups.

Search of the men at the Oakland police station after their arrest revealed that they had in their possession many of the tools of the hold-up man's trade.

Loeffler, the leader of the gang, according to the police, confessed that the band had under contemplation the robbery of a street car bound for Richmond.

"We had it all figured out," the police allege Loeffler told them, "to hold up one of the cars going towards Richmond that would be filled with people going home from the boxing bouts in Oakland. We had it figured out that this would be an easy job, and that it would net us a handsome haul."

A careful check is being made on them. They are now being held in jail for further investigation.

GYPSIES WORK GAME ON WOMAN

Rosa Christy of Pittsburg is today mourning the loss of $850, as a result of her unsophisticated confidence in traveling gypsies.

Thursday two itinerant banana hawkers out of work arrived at Rosa's door as she was communicating with departed friends over the ouija board. The ouija board registered bad news for Rosa and just then the gypsies appeared. They told her there would be a curse on her and that they would remove it if she would draw her savings from the bank. She did so, and the gypsies told her to place her wealth in her pillow and sleep on it. She did this. Next morning when she awoke she discovered that her fortune was missing. She reported her loss to the police. The gypsies, it appears, switched pillows on her after they had told her to place her fortune in her pillow and sleep on it.

Contractor Norman Anderson is erecting a series of new homes in Albany.

SHOCKED MAN STILL ALIVE

Though he was still in a very critical condition and still unconscious at a late hour last night, hope was still held out for the recovery of James Wilson, the employee of the Great Western Power Company who was badly shocked by an electric current Thursday.

The case of Wilson furnishes one of the most remarkable that physicians in California have ever had to work on. While working on a pole at Pullman and Cutting boulevard, Wilson was accidentally shocked, 10,000 volts passing through his body. The shock threw him from the pole and he fell to the sidewalk below, striking on his head. He was immediately rushed to the hospital, where every effort of the best medical skill was applied, but he was not restored to consciousness. That Wilson was still alive last night was looked upon as one of the modern marvels of science.

HOMES SOUGHT FOR LITTLE ONES

Have you a little Fairy in your home?

If you haven't, here is a grand chance to get one, for the Rev. D. W. Calfee, secretary of the Humane Society at 212 South Twenty-second street, this city, has six, and by making inquiries of him you may get one. He has five girls and one boy for whom he wishes to find homes. They range in age from four to thirteen years, and are all whites.

Couples who have no children of their own could make themselves and these little ones happy by getting into communication with the Rev. D. W. Calfee, telephone Richmond 356.

Irish Professor to Lecture Here

Professor Thomas E. Hardy, late of Belfast University, and a figure of great prominence in Irish affairs, will lecture on "Political and Industrial Conditions in Ireland" at the Lincoln Auditorium next Monday night.

Professor Hardy, who was a captain of the Republican forces in Ireland, has passed two years in jail as a result of his activities. Hardy has a stirring message relative to the reconstruction work going on in Ireland.

He is making a tour of the cities of the State under the auspices of the Women's Irish Education League of San Francisco. This will be his only appearance in Richmond. The public is invited to hear him speak. Admittance is free.

Automobile Agent Wanted

We have a splendid proposition for a good live man to make some real money, selling a popular, medium-priced car, but he must possess the following qualifications: He must be well known in his territory, have sufficient capital to buy a demonstrator and prove to us that he can go out and get the business. If you think you are the man write, or, better still, call on us at once.
